Dear Ms. Fabinski:

After our tour of the property and further discussion with other Department personnel, the following action will be taken at the Site:

- 1) Signs will be posted in key locations, warning of a "potential danger or hazard."
- 2) The Department will be pursuing cooperation with other agencies to determine if any hazardous material exists on our property.
- 3) An access agreement between the adjoining landowner and the Illinois Department of Conservation will be formalized, specifically excluding any maintenance of the area or use of mechanical equipment without our consent. In addition, gravel or some other material will be placed on the slope of the trail to prevent further erosion or exposure of "possible harmful material."

This course of action is only in regard to that portion of the property that the Department of Conservation owns and does not encompass any other properties in the area.

If you have any further questions, please give me a call.

Sincerely,
